This document should be filled in and kept in a place known to at least two members of your family.

Frequently in our society, a bereaved family is left to face problems about which they know little or nothing. Vital information necessary to meet legal requirements, fulfil the wishes of the deceased and alleviate the burden placed on the survivors of the bereaved is contained in the document. While this is not a legal document, it will greatly assist to minimize problems. Be sure, however, before filling it out that you have made a will and it is up to date.
